

How do I change my Site Manager password?

Written by Jomaa Ben Hassine
Tuesday, 29 December 2009 04:17 -

You can change your password for your Site Manager after you log in by going to the "Change My Password" section located under the "My Account" section of Site Manager. To change your password, simply type in your new password twice where indicated, and then verify your authority to change your password by typing in the old password where indicated.

In case you have misplaced or forgotten your Site Manager password, you must contact us to request a new password.